COMMENCED AUG. 8, 1837.

ST. JOHNSBURY, VERMONT, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 10, 1898.

VOL. LXI--NO. 3185

HOSTS OF REMNANTS.

REMNANTS

Accumulated at our Clearance Sale and we had no time to give them the attention needed to dispose of them. This week we have got them into shape and will display on our center tables Remnants from every department.

REMNANTS

of Dress Goods running in length from 1-2 yds. to 5-1-2 yards. The smaller pieces are just the thing for Waists and for small children's Dresses. The medium lengths are just what you want for School Dresses for the girls' wear this fall or for Ladies' Separate Skirts, while in some of the larger

REMNANTS

You will find a good pattern for a dress. Economical cutters know what a remnant means. You can save from 40 to 60 per cent on these goods, as many are marked LESS THAN COST. They must be sold this week, if possible.

REMNANTS

Of Table Linen at a great saving from regular prices.

REMNANTS

Of Crash. Here's your opportunity, for every housekeeper uses Crash. These are bargains, every one of them.

REMNANTS

Of Prints, Gingham, Flannels, Percales, in fact, you will find Remnants of nearly everything in our Domestic Department.

REMNANTS

Of Hamburgs, Ribbons, Laces. These will be of special interest to you. We will be ready for you Wednesday and the remnants will be all measured and marked. Come as soon as you read this advertisement and secure a bargain.

LOCAL GATHERINGS.

A new residence is being erected on Central street by D. V. Burbank.

The St. John de Chevrecoeur Chapter of the D. A. R. sent a box of supplies to Co. D. last week.

The excursion to Old Orchard beach last Sunday attracted large crowds all along the line and 75 tickets were sold from this station.

A religious service was held at the jail last Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock by John O. Hale. Many outsiders were present and the service was very interesting.

The Boys Brigade have been invited to participate in the Odd Fellows field day and will meet for a drill next Friday evening at 7 o'clock to prepare for the occasion.

The ladies of St. Andrew's church will continue their food sales in their rooms at the rear of the church, Saturday afternoons through August, from 3 until 6 o'clock.

The check list for the freeman's meeting to be held September 8th has been posted in several conspicuous places by the selectmen and every voter should see that his name is on.

The Town Hall is receiving a much needed improvement in the new hard wood ceiling which is being laid to take the place of the old one of plaster, which had fallen off in several places.

The insurance adjusters were here yesterday settling the fire loss on the Union block. The heaviest losses were Ranney & Potts and a satisfactory adjustment was made with them in a short time.

The board of civil authority have called meetings for August 15th and September 3d so that the voters names who are not already on the check list may be placed there. Be sure your name is on the list.

Rev. George Spencer of Newton Center, Mass., will conduct the 4 o'clock service at the Y. M. C. A. next Sunday afternoon. Special music will be furnished and it is hoped that a large crowd will turn out.

There will be an excursion, including a boat ride on Lake Champlain, from all stations on the Montpelier & Wells River railroad, East Montpelier and Wells River inclusive, to Plattsburg and return, Wednesday, August 17.

The republican town committee have called a caucus to nominate a representative on Saturday, August 20, at 2 o'clock in the Town Hall. There ought to be a large attendance at this caucus and there probably will be.

Among the attractions at the Caledonia county fair, Sept. 13-15, will be an exhibition of day fireworks on two days of the fair. This is the first time these have been shown in this section and they are sure to attract wide attention.

The following officers for the Reading Rooms' Association have been elected: President, O. H. Henderson; vice president, E. E. Evans; secretary, Simeon Clark; treasurer, W. B. Perkins; trustees, W. H. Ingram, E. M. Jackson and E. M. Stone.

The railroad boys have been entertaining their friends through the week at the reading room over the depot and all have admired the coziness of the place. The latest gift to the boys is the photograph of an old locomotive, presented by Charles S. Hastings.

The weather cleared just in time to make the evening pleasant for the band concert last Friday evening and the usual crowd was present. The pop corn men seem to be the ones who derive the most profit from these concerts as one of them cleared $25 in one week a short time ago.

Arrangements have been made by which the steamer "Lady of the Lake" will connect at Newport with the morning train from the south, next Sunday, returning in time to connect with the train leaving Newport at 5.00 p. m. Reduced rates have been secured and the fare from St. Johnsbury for the round trip is $1.50. The train leaves at 9.32 a. m. and returns at 6.38 p. m.

The Lake road and the Central Vermont advertise an excursion to Plattsburg and return on Thursday, Aug. 18, which ought to prove very attractive to pleasure seekers. The Waterville Cornet Band and the Jeffersonville Cornet Band will accompany the party and the ride on Lake Champlain is the most delightful part of the trip. The railroads have made a low rate of fare for both adults and children.

George C. Cary's Ada P. started in the 2.12 class at Portland, Me., last Thursday. The race was won by Winfield. Ada P. was not in good condition that day and finished fifth in the first, third and fourth heats and third in the second heat, the time for the winner being 2.12, 2.12, 2.12 and 2.15. Among those from here that were present at the race were George C. Cary and wife, H. E. Moore, J. D. Partridge and wife, Guy Stebbins and William A. Moulton.

Points to Foul Play.

Nothing definite has yet been heard from Eustis J. Batchelder although certain discoveries would point to foul play. A letter has been received from parties in Dover, N. J., which states that a note for $45.77, made by Alfred Berner payable to Eustis J. Batchelder, was found in a discolored condition a short ways from the grip and this would seem to show that he had been robbed and the thief thrown the note away as it was useless. A lead pencil copy of the agreement between Alfred Berner and Mr. Batchelder was also found. The following letter was received by E. E. Batchelder from the chief of police:

"Yours of the 1st received and would say that we are making every effort to find your son. He was seen yesterday and I have been searching the woods for him and expect to find him, and as soon as I do I will let you know at once."

Mrs. Batchelder is confident that her son was robbed and hurt in some way, but that he will be found and sent home in a short time. The newspapers at Dover are interested in the matter and have assured Mrs. Batchelder that everything will be done that is possible.

Violin Recital.

The violin pupils of N. R. Young gave a most enjoyable recital in the Y. M. C. A. Hall last evening. Only a very few were present to enjoy the entertainment. Beside the pupils in town Clarence Webster and Miss Lena A. Nichols, pupils of Mr. Young in Barton, were present. Leon C. Batchelder assisted with a fine flute solo and Mrs. W. S. Boynton presided at the piano.

Following is the programme:
Overture, P. Kolher, Op. 37
Violin solo, "Ave Maria," Ch. Gounod
Violin quartette, "Tramieri," R. Schumann
Violin duo, "Matiere, Boynton, Packard

Miss Boynton
Quartette, "Cavalleria Rusticana,"
For three violins and cello
Nichols, Boynton, Gauthier, Young
Violin solo, "Simplex," Schroeder
March from Lohengrin, Wagner
For flute and seven violins.

The Summer School.

The first week of the summer school is over, it has been very successful and the total number of pupils is now 107. Saturday was devoted to sight-seeing and the Museum, Athenaeum and other public buildings were the points of interest. This week the Fish Hatchery and scale shops will be visited. On Thursday evening a reception will be held at the Museum to which every one is invited.

Following is the list of those having entered since last Wednesday: Kate D. Park, Helen M. Albee, May Adams, Annie E. Carr, Grace E. Montgomery, St. Johnsbury; Nellie A. Grandy, Middlesex; Jane Craigie, South Ryegate; Jennie M. Tice, Lilla M. Davis, Corn E. Demick, Holland; E. H. Bacon, Bradford; Alice M. Enos, Martha M. Clement, Newport; Kate B. Willey, Topsham; Harold A. Renfrew, Louise J. Way, Peacham; Caroline M. Stevens, Alice S. McLachlin, South Peacham; Mabel E. Dow, West Barnet; Jessie F. Seaver, White River Junction; Annie M. Guthrie, Ethel R. Guthrie, Martha A. Guthrie, Jessie E. Guthrie, Melrose; Caroline H. Lang, Newbury; Sara E. Nye, West Charleston; Laura E. Atkins, Harriet A. Fisher, Calais; Dorcas Judkins, Rose J. Annis, Passumpsic; Julia D. Blodgett, Lower Cabot; Florence E. Johnson, Susie Wells, North Danville; Iva B. Sweeney, Island Pond; Marion A. Nicholson, Lyndon; Flora M. Ladd, East Burke; Marion L. Whitelaw, Wells River; Mabel L. Brock, Barnet.

Customs Examination.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces that an examination for the Custom service will be held at Newport, on some date between October 1 and 15, 1898. All persons who desire to be examined should apply to the secretary of the board of examiners at Newport, for application blanks, and full information relative to the scope of the examination. Applications on Form 101 must be filed in complete form with the secretary of the board prior to the hour of closing business on September 1; otherwise, the applicants cannot be examined. Soon after filing applications applicants will be notified as to the exact date of examination.

Federal Labor Union.

An association of about one hundred wage-workers of this town have been granted a charter by the American Federation of Labor, for an organization to be known as Federal Labor Union, No. 7130, of St. Johnsbury. The objects of the Union are to study industrial questions and to secure legislation favorable for the laboring classes. It is expected that a prominent organizer will be secured to organize the Union within a few days.

Volunteer Aid Association Organized.

In response to an invitation given in last week's paper the ladies of the town met at the Armory Thursday afternoon and organized a Volunteer Aid Association to work for the boys of our regiment in the hospitals and to assist them and others in any way possible.

Mrs. Jonathan Ross was appointed temporary chairman and Miss Margaret Robie secretary. The association was organized by electing the following officers: Pres., Mrs. P. F. Hazen; vice pres., Mrs. Jonathan Ross; secretary, Miss Margaret Robie; treasurer, Mrs. C. E. Ayers; executive committee, Mrs. Horace Fairbanks, Mrs. Thomas Tyrie, Mrs. B. W. Spaulding, Mrs. Jerome Lemaire, and Mrs. S. W. Parkhurst.

Letters were read from Mrs. C. M. Bonett and Capt. Ellis, who are both at Chickamauga, telling of some articles needed and the condition of the regiment. Mrs. C. H. Merrill told of some of the work done by her sister, Mrs. Amos Draper, who is treasurer of the war committee of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Dr. Fairbanks was present and spoke of the work to be done, and commended those present for their loyalty.

Samples of articles brought by Mrs. Ashton R. Willard which could be used as patterns for hospital shirts, surgical shirts, pajamas and bands were kindly sent from Massachusetts Aid Association as a gift from Massachusetts to Vermont, and Vermont acknowledges the gift with thanks.

The money collected by Mrs. W. L. Moulton a few weeks ago has been given to this association as a fund to start with, and those whose names were on that paper, together with any others who contribute either money or material are considered members of the association. Money or material will be gratefully received from any one interested in the cause, and as many of the boys of Co. D are from the towns about, those in the county are cordially invited to send any such through the Volunteer Aid Association. The gentlemen are also especially requested to join in this movement.

Through the kindness of Dr. Fairbanks a meeting of the association was held in the vestry of the South church, Monday afternoon, where the work on pillow cases, sheets, hospital shirts and towels was prepared for them. Mrs. Robert McKinnon, Miss Rosie Weeks and Miss Lizzie Hawes assisted the committee in preparing the work. The amount of money that has been raised up to the present time is $147.50, of which $50 has been sent to Major James N. Jenne, chief surgeon of the 1st Vermont regiment at Chickamauga.

Another meeting will be held at the North church vestry Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, for work, to which all ladies are invited.

Below we give the names of the members of the association:
Frank H. Brooks, H. N. Turner, W. S. Boynton, W. P. Stafford, H. E. Smith, C. C. Bingham, Edward F. Griswold, F. E. Potts, George Ranney, L. F. Gaskill, C. E. Somerville, T. L. Knights of Pythias Encampment.

The state of Vermont will be represented at the biennial encampment of the Knights of Pythias, to be held at Indianapolis, Ind., August 22-29, by Grand Chancellor Arthur C. Randall of St. Johnsbury and the supreme representatives F. A. Field of Rutland and W. H. Gilchrist of Melrose. Mr. Randall will leave here the 19th and join the excursion at Greenfield, Mass., arriving at Indianapolis on Monday, where he will open the Vermont headquarters at either the Dennison or Bates House.

It is expected that the gathering will be the largest in the history of the order and Indianapolis is making preparations to entertain over 100,000 visitors. The parade on Tuesday will be a great feature of the encampment and will be made up of about 30,000 members. Reduced rates have been secured on all the railroads the fare for the round trip from here being only $18.

Wedding at Madison, N. H.

The wedding of Miss Sarah Eastman Kennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kennett of Madison, N. H., and Frank Larnard Kendall of Laconia, formerly of this place, was solemnized at the Baptist church in Madison, Wednesday, August 3. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William H. Getchel, pastor of the Park Street Baptist church at Lakeport, N. H.

The church was handsomely decorated with evergreen, mountain flowers and potted plants, and a large arch in the center of the pulpit with a background of drooping firs, festooned with white astors and tied with white ribbons completed a scene of rare beauty. The bridal couple stood under a marriage bell of white flowers, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Schmitt of Chicago. The bride was given away by her father. She wore a gown of ivory satin, court train, bodice lace appliqued with front of silk embroidered mousseline de soie. The bridal veil was very becomingly draped and fastened with a pearl sunburst, the gift of the groom, the bouquet was of green foliage and lilies of the valley. Miss Gertrude Flora Kennett, youngest sister of the bride, as maid of honor, was dressed in white swiss muslin over pink silk, and Mr. Clarence Ward Plummer was best man. The bridesmaids were Miss Pearl Dow, Miss Grace Russell and Miss Alice Gilman, and were dressed in white swiss muslin over different colors. The ushers were Messrs. R. Kneuper, Charles Dow, Henry Plummer and R. E. Smith. After the wedding a reception was held at the church where the bridal party were assisted in receiving by Mrs. William Kennett, mother of the bride, and Mrs. L. L. Kendall and Mr. Josiah Gage, mother and brother of the groom, after which a collation was served at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kennett, to the relatives, friends and guests of the bride and groom.

Among the guests from out of town were Mrs. L. L. Kendall and Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Gage of St. Johnsbury, Mrs. Helen P. Mackintosh of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Plummer, Mrs. True E. Prescott, Mrs. Wm. H. Getchel and Dr. and Mrs. J. Grant Quimby of Lakeport, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. Conant of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Gilman of West Somerville, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Schmitt of Chicago, and many other friends from surrounding towns. The wedding presents were numerous and beautiful.

After a short trip, Mr. and Mrs. Kendall will be at home at 43 Washington street, Lakeport, N. H.

The Band Boys Entertained.

It has been many years since the music rendered by the St. Johnsbury Band has afforded better satisfaction than it has given this summer, especially to the music loving people. The large attendance and hearty applause goes to prove the appreciation by the public. The members of the band have been entertained after the two last concerts, once by Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Brooks, and at another time by Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Potter, assisted by D. C. Horner, at their home on Main street. Both occasions were most enjoyable and will be long remembered.

It is encouraging to note this increased interest in the band, which heretofore has been lacking, and it is the wish of all that the members of the band may know that their many hours of practice are appreciated.

A New Schoolhouse Asked For.

The clerk of the school board has called a special town meeting in the Town Hall on Saturday, Aug. 2, at 3 p. m. or immediately after the republican caucus. The meeting is called in response to a petition which has been presented the board and which is signed by nearly 200 of the citizens of this town, including many of the Sumnerville taxpayers. The call for the meeting, which is published in another column, states the objects for which the meeting is called and there ought to be a large attendance at this meeting.

To the Freeman of St. Johnsbury.

The first meeting of the Board of Civil Authority, to correct the check list, will be held in the Selectmen's office, over Passumpsic Savings Bank, on Monday, August 15th, 1898, at 2 P. M.
The last meeting for the same purpose, will be held at the same place, Sept. 3d, 1898. From an examination of the Grand List for 1898, it appears that a large number who are assessed, are not known to be voters, and it is important that PERSONS ENTITLED TO VOTE, appear on one of the stated dates, in order to be able to vote. Those who have not taken the Freeman's Oath, MUST APPEAR and do so, before they can vote.
